

Leadstone Holiday Park Refund Policy

Postponement and Cancellation due to the law or Government advice

This clause explains when you, or we, may cancel or agree to postpone your holiday due to Government restrictions. We prefer that you postpone but will always allow you to cancel where the law gives you the right to do so.

The rights in this clause are additional to any other rights either of us may have in our terms and conditions.

We promise to keep all our customers safe. We ask you not to book if the law prevents you visiting or staying with us, or if Government guidance means that you should not visit or stay with us even if the law still allows you to. Our promise also means that there are limited circumstances in which we may need to cancel your holiday.

Either of us has the right to cancel your holiday, or any unused days, if the law prevents you from visiting or staying with us. If your holiday has not started, then we will refund your booking in full less any costs we have already incurred on your holiday which we cannot recover elsewhere ("Direct Costs"). If your holiday has started, then we will refund in full any days unused when we cancel, again less any Direct Costs. We will not charge an administration fee.

Either of us also has the right to cancel your holiday, or any unused days, if Government guidance means that you should not visit or stay with us, even if the law still allows you to do so. If your holiday has not started, then we will refund your booking in full. If your holiday has started, then we will refund in full any days unused when we cancel. We will not charge an administration fee and we will not deduct any Direct Costs.

Curtailement of a booking by Leadstone Holiday Park

Should the situation arise where Leadstone Holiday Park has to terminate a booking during the stay for breach of the booking agreement, terms and conditions or park rules, then there will be no refund payable against the unused part of your stay.

Customer Cancellation, Curtailement or Payment Default

Non payment of booking fees by due date

Bookings are to be paid for in full 2 weeks prior to arrival. Leadstone Holiday Park will send a reminder out to you 3 weeks prior to arrival and then a further overdue letter at 2 weeks prior to your arrival. Should full payment not be forthcoming and no agreement with Leadstone Holiday Park agreed then your fees will be forfeited and no refund will be due.

Customer cancellation prior to arrival

Unfortunately there are occasions where stays have to be cancelled prior to arrival. You will have no right to a refund. However, the fees may be transferred to a subsequent booking which starts in the same calendar year. We recommend that you consider appropriate travel insurance.

Customer curtailement of a booking

Should it be necessary to curtail your stay at Leadstone Holiday Park, please notify the Reception Team prior to your departure as retrospective notification may impact any outcome if it means we are not able to investigate the circumstances leading to the cancellation.

The remaining fees on the booking may always be transferred to a subsequent booking which starts in the same calendar year. Additionally, if you have curtailed your booking because we are in breach of our contract with you and we have not been able to resolve that breach, we will offer a full refund.

Payment of Refunds

All refunds will be made in the same way that the booking was paid for. For non card refunds, it will be in cash if in person or via a cheque if remote. Card refunds must be made to the card that the booking was originally paid for with.
